TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The Carrier shall mean operator whose aircraft has been chartered to perform this flight whether the actual name is by abbreviation or in full, as indicated above. The Charterer shall mean the United Nations World Food Programme.
2. If the carriage under and in terms of this passenger ticket is "international carriage" as defined by the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to International Carriage by Air signed at Warsaw, 12th October, 1929, or any amendment thereof (the "Convention"), then such carriage will be subject to all rules and limitations relating to liability established by the Convention.
3. In respect of all carriage not subject to and/or governed by the Convention, all carriage and all services and operations rendered and/or undertaken by the Carrier shall be subject to the terms and conditions set out below, in accordance with the Aircraft Charter Agreement with the Charterer and related regulations which are made part hereof (and are available on application at the offices of the Carrier).
4. The Carrier shall not board any passenger without the express approval of the Charterer.
5. The Carrier shall not accept any unaccompanied baggage or cargo without the express approval of the Charterer. The Carrier shall accept full responsibility for damage to baggage or cargo taken into the Carrier's custody by his agent, in accordance with the Aircraft Charter Agreement with the Charterer.
6. The Charterer bears no liability whatsoever to the passenger in the event of death or injury, or damage to baggage or cargo, sustained in connection with all carriage and all services and operations rendered and/or undertaken by the Carrier under this contract.
7. Should a flight be delayed or made impossible by reason or any cause whatsoever, no action or claim shall arise against the Carrier or the Charterer whether such delay or impossibility was occasioned by the fault or negligence of the Carrier or the Charterer and/or any of its officers, employees or agents.
8. No agent, servant or representative of the Carrier has authority to alter, modify or waive any provision of this contract.
9. Any action taken against the Carrier shall be brought only in a court of competent jurisdiction in the country of the Carrier's origin.
10. Check-in is 1 hour prior to indicated departure time.
